

Ellen Musikant
Storyteller
8 Clonavor Road
West Orange, NJ 07052

(973) 669-0244
emusikant@gmail.com

Resume

Work Experience 1995 - present

Storyteller. Performances in schools, museums, libraries, festivals, civic and charitable settings.

Workshop Facilitator. Workshops for teachers, storytellers, students, docents and other interested groups of individuals.

Narrator. Snow White for the NJSO's Family Concert series. March 2000. With the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra at New Jersey Performing Arts Center, Newark, NJ; and, The State Theater, New Brunswick, NJ.

Storyteller in Residence. Zimmerli Art Museum. As an affiliated artist, Storytelling Arts, Inc. in New Jersey districts including Therapeutic Learning Center in East Orange, YCS, Perth Amboy, Keansburg, Mt. Olive, Paterson, Elizabeth, Roselle Park, Trenton, East Orange HeadStart. Also Morristown Middle School and Collinsville Child Care Center.

Producer. Spring Benefits for Storytelling Arts, Inc. Tellabratons for the West Orange Arts Council; Tale Spin; 13th Annual NJ Storytelling Fest.

Publications

Co-authored Judaism through Children's Literature with Sue Grass. Published. A.R.E. Publishing Inc. , 2001.

Other Work Experience

2008: Interim Executive Director, Storytelling Arts, Inc.

1992-95: Arts Education Coordinator. Jewish Community Center of MetroWest West Orange, NJ.

1986-91: Assistant Director. Institute for the Humanities. Montclair State College (now University). Montclair, NJ

1974-1984: Freelance researcher/producer/writer. Television documentaries and magazine format programs. Children's Television Workshop, WNBC-TV, Time-Life Television, Home Box Office.

Education

MA, Theatre Arts, University of Connecticut (1974)
BA, cum laude, Theatre Arts, The Pennsylvania State University (1972)

Professional Affiliations

Storytelling Arts, Inc.
New Jersey Storytelling Guild
New Jersey Storytelling Network